

foot, $2 per square foot, and $3 per square foot, respectively.

- a. This option would not have budgetary impacts from the perspective of how the Recommended Budget is built.
- b. This option does not present operational challenges to the Treasurer-Tax Collector's office, as the proposed effective date coincides with the start of the fiscal year and aligns with established quarterly reporting due dates.

After adjusting for these reductions, the estimated FY 22-23 commercial cannabis business tax revenue at the time of writing is $7.5 million dollars. This estimate should not be considered a static figure, as it is subject to changes resulting from cultivation canopy modifications and business closures throughout the fiscal year.

On July 26, 2022, the Board was set for a second reading to adopt an Ordinance to make these changes. The Ordinance also would have given the Board the ability to waive penalties and interest for delinquent cannabis cultivation taxes by resolution instead of by ordinance. The Board approved the item on consent. However, staff mistakenly used an incorrect version of the Ordinance, requiring staff to recommence the process with a first reading of the Ordinance.

Additionally, on July 26, 2022, the Board approved the same cannabis cultivation tax rates retroactive to the beginning of the second quarter of FY 21-22 - $1/square foot for nursery, $2/square foot for mixed-light, and $3/square foot for indoor cultivation.

Given these facts, staff elected to combine these matters into a single Ordinance that would 1) reduce cannabis cultivation tax rates retroactive to the beginning of the second quarter of FY 21-22 - $1/square foot for nursery, $2/square foot for mixed-light, and $3/square foot for indoor cultivation; 2) authorize the Board to act as to penalties and interest by resolution instead of ordinance; and 3) extend the Board's previous conditional waiver of penalties and interest for cannabis taxes delinquent for FY 21-22 quarters 2 and 3, accomplished in Ordinance No. 5371, from July 31, 2022, to January 31, 2023, adding FY 21-22 quarter 4 to that conditional waiver.

The ordinance was introduced for its first reading on August 23, 2022 and is currently before the Board of Supervisors for final adoption. Redlined and clean versions of the Ordinance are attached to this report as Attachments A and B, respectively.
