

ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF MONTEREY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,
AMENDING CHAPTERS 2.12, 2.18, 2.19, and 3.14 OF THE MONTEREY COUNTY
CODE FOR CONSISTENCY WITH FEDERAL AND STATE LAW, AND TO UPDATE
TO CIVIL RIGHTS TERMINOLOGY

County Counsel Summary

This ordinance amends Chapters 2.12, 2.18, 2.19, and 3.14 of the Monterey County Code to reflect current civil rights terminology and to ensure consistency with federal and state laws. The ordinance replaces the phrase “Equal Opportunity Officer” to “Civil Rights Officer” to reflect the updated title. The ordinance also eliminates the term “affirmative action” to ensure compliance with Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) and Americans with Disabilities Act laws. Lastly, the ordinance updates the responsibilities of the Civil Rights Officer by replacing the requirement to staff the “Equal Opportunity Advisory Commission and the Monterey County Commission on Disabilities” with a more flexible provision allowing staffing of commissions “determined or assigned to the Civil Rights Office by the Board of Supervisors”.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Monterey ordains as follows:

SECTION 1. Findings.

A. Pursuant to Article XI, section 7 of the California Constitution, the County of Monterey may adopt and enforce ordinances and regulations not in conflict with general laws to protect and promote the public health, safety, and welfare of its citizens.

B. On November 5, 1996, the State of California passed Proposition 209 (California Civil Rights Initiative). In accordance with the new legislation, the County of Monterey Board of Supervisors established the Office of Affirmative Action to meet the requirements the legislation established for local jurisdictions.

C. The Office of Affirmative Action dedicated its work to advancing civil rights policies and fostering equity within the County. However, over the years, the Office underwent several name changes to reflect its evolving role.

D. After initially being designated as the “Office of Affirmative Action,” it later became the “Equal Opportunity Office” and, since January 9, 2018, is now referred to as the “Civil Rights Office” and its departmental lead the “Civil Rights Officer” under Chapters 2.19 and 2.80 of the Monterey County Code (“MCC”).

E. These previous MCC updates emphasized the Office's responsibility for overseeing local civil rights policies and ensuring compliance with state and federal civil rights laws. While these changes in nomenclature have been documented, the MCC has not yet been fully updated accordingly.

F. The Board of Supervisors desires to amend the MCC to reflect current civil rights practices, and ensure consistency with civil rights federal and state laws.

G. Further, in addition to the terminology update, a change in the language pertaining to commissions under MCC Section 2.19.020 is necessary to afford flexibility in case the commissions determine to redesignate their name or purpose as they have done in the past.
