

Before the Board of Supervisors in and for the County of Monterey, State of California

Resolution No.:

Adopt Resolution proclaiming March 2018 as _____) Women's History Month in Monterey County.....)

WHEREAS, Women of every race, class, and ethnic background make contributions to the growth and strength of our County in countless recorded and unrecorded ways; and

WHEREAS, Women play critical economic, cultural, and social roles in every sphere of life, constituting a significant portion of the labor force, working both in and out of the home, as well as courageously serving in our country's armed forces; and

WHEREAS, Women are leaders, serving in the forefront of progressing social change movements, securing their own rights of suffrage and equal opportunity, and fighting for the rights of others to create a more fair and just society for all; and

WHEREAS, Despite these contributions, the role of women in history has been consistently overlooked and undervalued, in the literature, teaching and study of American history. Including Susan B. Anthony, Sojourner Truth, Lucy Stone, Lucretia Mott, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Harriet Tubman, Alice Paul among other women leaders who struggled for equality; and

WHEREAS, Women's history takes a new look at all that has gone before and tells the story of our shared past from a different perspective, not rewriting history, but presenting and expanding a version of history that recognizes and honors the accomplishments of women; and

WHEREAS, The National Women's History Project, a non-profit educational organization, was set up in 1980 to recognize and celebrate the diverse and significant historical accomplishments of women, and successfully lobbied Congress to designate March as National Women's History Month in 1987; and

WHEREAS, The National Women's History Project has selected "Nevertheless, She Persisted: Honoring Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women" as this year's annual theme to bring attention and honor women for their unrelenting and inspirational persistence, demonstrating the power of voice, by fighting all forms of discrimination against women and girls, they have shaped America's history and our future.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Monterey does hereby proclaim the month of March 2018 as Women's History Month in Monterey County.
