- NOTES:

A native of Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, Harry Robins enlisted in the U. S. Navy as an Airman Recruit after graduation from high school in 1956. Following completion of naval flight training in 1958 at the age of nineteen and a half, he served in various squadrons, ships, staffs, and air stations, accumulating over 5,000 hours of flight time and 300 carrier landings. He is the recipient of various military awards and designations.

He was employed by Monterey County from 1991 until 2005, and was involved in various local disasters and emergencies, most notably the floods of 1995, the December 1995 power outages, and the winter storms of 1997 and 1998, the Kirk Complex wildland fires of 1999, Y2K, and the attacks of 9/11/01. He resides in Monterey. Harry consults in the emergency services management field and media relations.

Harry currently serves as a member of the Risk Management Committee for the Silicon Valley Monterey Bay Council, Boy Scouts of America, and as a member of the Monterey County Emergency Medical Services Council.
