

ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNTY OF MONTEREY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, AMENDING TITLE 2, CHAPTER 2.80 OF THE MONTEREY COUNTY CODE
ESTABLISHING POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR THE INVESTIGATION AND RESOLUTION OF DISCRIMINATION

County Counsel Summary

This ordinance, known as the Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Ordinance, amends in its entirety, by replacing and expanding, Chapter 2.80 of the Monterey County Code, which was enacted in 1991 to establish policy and procedures for the investigation and resolution of discrimination complaints. The amended Chapter 2.80 reaffirms the commitment of the County of Monterey to provide equal opportunities for all, provides for flexibility in administration with the ability to respond to changes in the law, establishes policies, and delegates to the Equal Opportunity Officer the responsibility to develop and revise as appropriate procedures to implement the purposes of this Chapter. County policies supporting this chapter include: 1. Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Policy; 2. Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy; 3. Equal Opportunity for Persons with Disabilities and Reasonable Accommodation Policy; and 4. Diversity Policy.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Monterey ordains as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 2 of the Monterey County Code, Chapter 2.80, is hereby amended in its entirety as follows:

Chapter 2.80 EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND NON-DISCRIMINATION ORDINANCE

2.80.010 Recitals.

A. This ordinance is adopted with the stated goal of reaffirming the commitment of the County of Monterey to providing equal opportunities for all, and preventing and eliminating unlawful discrimination. In 1991, the County of Monterey adopted the Discrimination Complaint Ordinance, which has served the County of Monterey well for many years. The 2012 amendment and retitling of the ordinance recognizes the long-standing commitment of the County of Monterey to the principles of equal opportunity and anti-discrimination. It also provides for flexibility in administration and the ability to respond to changes in the law, establishes policies and allows development and revision of procedures that can be updated. To promote this commitment, the County adopts this ordinance and provides for the adoption and revision of policies, programs and procedures designed to effectuate the purposes of this ordinance.

2.80.020 Purpose.

A. The County of Monterey (“County”) reaffirms its commitment to providing all persons residing in, employed by, or doing business with the County with equal opportunities to live, grow, learn, work, play, worship, and enjoy the privileges and responsibilities of contact with the County, unhampered by unlawful discrimination, irrespective of any person’s race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, sexual orientation or any other protected status recognized under the law.

B. The Board of Supervisors values providing an open and empathetic channel of communications for County officials and employees, applicants for employment and for business relationships with the County, and others who receive services from the County, so that they may discuss and obtain guidance with respect to issues covered by this ordinance. To that end, the Board of Supervisors has appointed an Equal Opportunity Officer who is charged with the responsibility of developing, maintaining and revising policies and procedures, and the relevant delegated provisions of the County of Monterey Equal Opportunity Plan; to ensure compliance with federal, state and local laws pertaining to equal opportunity and discrimination; receiving, addressing and investigating complaints of discrimination; and providing advice about resources and assistance available for persons concerned about discrimination.

C. The Board of Supervisors reaffirms its expectation that each County official and employee should be responsible for maintaining a workplace that is free from unlawful discrimination, harassment and hostile working conditions. To this end, the County has provided, and will continue to provide, training and education designed to enable all employees to recognize and prevent unlawful discrimination, sexual harassment and hostile work environments.

D. The Board of Supervisors reaffirms its belief that the interests of the County and all affected parties are best served when complaints of unlawful discrimination are effectively and expeditiously handled at the lowest possible level, so as to provide for prompt and thorough investigation and appropriate response to such complaints, and to promote early resolution of all discrimination complaints.

E. The Board of Supervisors shall hold all Department Heads and appointing authorities accountable for the actions of their managers, supervisors, staff and agents; and shall include criteria in the annual performance evaluations of all appointed officials concerning their compliance with this Ordinance and related adopted policies as well as the County of Monterey Equal Opportunity Plan.

2.80.030 Jurisdiction.

The scope of this ordinance is limited to claims and complaints alleging unlawful discrimination relating to employment with the County of Monterey, applicants for employment with County of Monterey, recipients of County services and those who seek to or do business with the County of Monterey and efforts to prevent unlawful discrimination.

2.80.040 County policies supporting this ordinance.

A. In furtherance of the purposes of this ordinance, the Board of Supervisors shall adopt by resolution, and may add or revise as appropriate, policies identified as follows:

1. Equal Opportunity and Non-Discrimination Policy
2. Prevention of Sexual Harassment Policy
3. Equal Opportunity for Persons with Disabilities and Reasonable Accommodation Policy
4. Diversity Policy

B. These policies apply to conduct of all vendors, contractors, employees and officers of the County, and will be posted on the County's Equal Opportunity Office website. Each County employee and department is responsible for sound administration of and adherence to these policies.

C. The Equal Opportunity Office will address complaints of non-compliance with these policies, as provided for below.

2.80.050 Programs supporting this ordinance.

In furtherance of the purposes of this ordinance, the Board of Supervisors directs and delegates to the Equal Opportunity Office responsibility for developing, revising and implementing a Discrimination Prevention Program.

2.80.060 Procedures supporting this ordinance.

A. In furtherance of the purposes of this ordinance, the Board of Supervisors directs and delegates to the Equal Opportunity Office responsibility for developing, revising and implementing appropriate procedures to effectuate each of the policies identified above. These procedures will be designed to provide practical protocols and instructions for bringing forth and addressing complaints and concerns about compliance with the policies identified above. The Equal Opportunity Office will provide training to County employees with respect to these policies and procedures.

B. The Equal Opportunity Office will provide periodic reports to the Board of Supervisors with respect to revisions to the procedures developed by the Equal Opportunity Office pursuant to this ordinance.

2.80.070 Superceding of redundant resolutions.

In recognition of the provisions of this ordinance and the policies, programs and procedures established hereunder, the following resolutions of the Board of Supervisors are hereby superceded by the ordinance and the policies set forth above:
