The Rental Agreement and Support Agreement stated in this document are two separate and distinct contracts between CareFusion and Customer. The two contracts are stated in this single document for administrative convenience only.

Rental Agreement: CareFusion shall rent to Customer and Customer shall rent from CareFusion each Pyxis Product identified on the attached Pyxis Product Schedule on the Rental Terms stated herein. This Rental Agreement incorporates the latest Master Rental Terms and Conditions executed by the Parties as of the full execution of this Rental Agreement. CareFusion shall license, not rent, any software identified above or integrated into any Pyxis Product identified above.

Support Agreement: CareFusion shall support and Customer shall accept support of each Pyxis Product identified on the attached Pyxis Product Schedule on the Support Terms stated herein. This Support Agreement incorporates the latest Master Support Terms and Conditions executed by the Parties as of the full execution of this Support Agreement.

Intellectual Property Ownership: CareFusion retains all exclusive rights in the Interface Services, the technical side of the interface(s) and related materials, if any, including any patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or any other intellectual property right or source code related to the performance of the Interface Services. Customer shall have no claim of any intellectual property right as referenced in the preceding sentence. CareFusion shall retain the right to provide similar services to other customers and grants Customer a non-exclusive license to use any intellectual property created by CareFusion that is integrated in the functioning of a Pyxis® Product.
