Serious felonies are offenses that are not listed in Penal Code sections 1192.7(c) and 667.5(c).”

and replacing it with

“(a) Misdemeanors - $200 for each misdemeanor case assigned pursuant to this Agreement, through the conclusion of the case.

(b) Non-Strike Felonies - $75 per hour for each non-strike felony case assigned pursuant to this Agreement, through the conclusion of the case. Non-strike felonies are offenses not listed in either Penal Code Sections 667.5(c) or 1192.7(c).

(c) Serious Strike Felonies - $100 per hour for each strike felony case assigned pursuant to this Agreement, through the conclusion of the case. Felonies designated as strikes are the offenses listed in Penal Code Section 667.5(c) and 1192.7(c).”

7. Exhibit A to the Agreement, “Scope of Work” shall be amended by removing, “The Attorney shall be assigned no more than 100 clients during the term of this Agreement. Clients who: (a) cannot be represented due to a conflict of interest; (b) retain private counsel, or; (c) successfully relieve counsel pursuant to People v. Marsden (1970), 2 Cal.3d 118, do not count toward the case limitation. This Agreement is concurrent client based; therefore, one client equals one client, regardless of the number of individual cases assigned to that client on a concurrent basis. These limitations cannot be exceeded unless the parties mutually agree in writing to change these limitations.” and replacing it with “The Attorney shall be assigned no more than 100 clients during the term of this Agreement. If a client has concurrent felony charges alleged in a separate Complaint, Information or Grand Jury Indictment, each will be counted as a separate client toward the 100-client contract maximum. However, a client who has concurrent felony violations of probation or post community release violations will constitute one client. Clients who: (a) cannot be represented due to conflict of interest; (b) retain private counsel, or; (c) successfully relieve counsel pursuant to People v. Marsden (1970), 2 Cal.3d 118, do not count toward the case limitation, unless the Attorney has performed significant work on the case. These limitations cannot be exceeded unless the parties mutually agree in writing to change these limitations.”

8. Except as provided herein, all remaining terms, conditions and provisions of the AGREEMENT are unchanged and unaffected by the AGREEMENT and shall continue in full force and effect as set forth in the AGREEMENT.
9. A copy of this AMENDMENT #1 shall be attached to the original AGREEMENT executed by the County on June 22, 2021.
