WHEREAS, the Human Resources Department contracted with Sloan Sakai Yeung & Wong LLP an independent consulting firm to conduct a classification study of the positions within the Contracts and Purchasing division of the County Administrative Office; and

WHEREAS, the independent consultant recommends changing the title of ‘Contracts and Purchasing’ to ‘Contracts and Procurement’ as Purchasing is indicative of more short-term goals while procurement is enveloped in a more long-term strategy for an agency; and

WHEREAS, the independent consultant determined the Contracts and Purchasing Officer classification reflects the duties and responsibilities that the incumbent is currently performing, however, the consultant recommended the class title be changed to Chief Contracts and Procurement Officer; and

WHEREAS, the independent consultant determined the duties and responsibilities assigned to the Buyers and Management Analyst classifications in the Contracts and Purchasing division do not accurately reflect the duties and responsibilities that the incumbents are currently performing and, given the scope of work, complexity, and consequence of error, the consultant recommended for the County to create the classifications of Deputy Contracts and Procurement Officer I, II and Senior Deputy Contracts and Procurement Officer to more accurately reflect the duties being performed; and

WHEREAS, the independent consultant determined there were no matches within the County's ten (10) market comparable agencies and conducted an internal comparison analysis of the duties, scope, occupational orientation, and qualifications of similarly situated classifications in the County of Monterey which resulted in similarities between the Contracts and Purchasing Officer and the Hospital Purchasing & Materials Support Director at Natividad Medical Center. The consultant also recommended appropriate salary spreads between the proposed Chief Contracts and Procurement Officer and the recommended Deputy Contracts and Procurement Officer classifications/series; and

WHEREAS, the Human Resources Department and County Administrative Office concur with the recommendations of the independent consultant; and

WHEREAS, to implement the recommendations, the actions require the Personnel Policies and Practices Resolution No. 98-394 Appendix A and B to be amended;
