12. Board Comments

Supervisor Salinas noted the opening of the Mary Agnes Young Library in San Lucas last weekend. He thanked Director of Monterey County Free Libraries Jayanti Addleman for the very nice event with the community at the opening and for providing library services throughout the county. He thanked the Resource Management Agency and the Sarmiento Family for their generous donation.

Supervisor Alejo announced there was a very successful town hall meeting on public safety and fixing roads & sidewalks, hosted by three Salinas City Council members, Scott Davis, Gloria Dela Rosa and Tony Barrera. It was important for Supervisor Alejo to be there and to show that more can be accomplished for the City of Salinas on issues like the Alisal Vibrancy Plan, public safety and immigration when everyone is working in collaboration.

Supervisor Adams hopes that Mother Nature will give us a break and asked everyone to keep a good thought that issues affecting Big Sur and Highway 1, due to storm damage, can be effectively and timely addressed.
