Key Implications

- ▶ Competitive bond funding available to expand infrastructure
- ▶ Per LAO, bond funding will house less than 3% of California's current individuals experiencing homelessness
- ▶ Redirection of MHSA funds will result in a reduction of dollars available locally to fund:
 - ▶ Local Prevention Programs - adverse impacts on historically underserved communities
 - ▶ Innovation Programs
 - ▶ Workforce Education & Training
 - ▶ Capital Facilities
 - ▶ Mental Health Services to both Adults and Children served by Behavioral Health
 - ▶ Loss of federal Medi-Cal revenues associated with the reduction in services
- ▶ MHSA/BHSA is a highly volatile revenue source and counties need to plan for sustainable programming that the community can rely on

BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

Additional implications

- ▶ There is no new funding, only a redirection of existing funding that has been fully utilized in supporting community programs and services.
- ▶ Community members will be impacted by service changes due to the redirected funding
- ▶ There is no additional funding available for the expanded coverage for Substance Use Disorder treatment.
- ▶ Community Based Organizations will be impacted by reductions and/or elimination of funding for highly valued programs, which could threaten their financial viability or affect their workforce.
- ▶ Local Prevention Programs will be highly impacted by reductions and/or elimination of funding and adversely affect historically underserved people.
- ▶ The bond measure and the homeless funding will not provide sufficient affordable housing to solve homelessness in our communities. This will be a cause of community concern.

Next Steps:

Preparing for BHSA implementation

- ▶ Forecast expected BHSA revenue including BHSA and Realignment
- ▶ Identify mandated programs county operates and identify funding available to cover mandates, including federal Medi-Cal dollars
- ▶ Identify any other sources of local revenues inclusive of partnerships with schools, probation, child welfare or other governmental providers serving the same population as Behavioral Health.
- ▶ Identify non-mandated program, data demonstrating their effectiveness, partners involved with each, local cost to continue operations and federal funding leverage.
- ▶ Gather provider and community input on priorities for the non-mandated programs while sharing the amount of revenue available to cover the programs.

Next Steps:

Preparing for BHSA implementation

- ▶ Hold community listening sessions, presenting financial and program information to all stakeholder groups including: various communities, cities, partners, contractors and public. Gather input from all.
- ▶ Utilize data and community input sessions to develop recommendations for Board of Supervisors to consider the programs to be funded and provide list of programs that did not have funding secured.
- ▶ Work with community providers and partners on transition plans and seek ways of mitigating adverse impacts, including looking at Medi-Cal funding opportunities under CalAIM.
- ▶ Continue to work with the State and County Behavioral Health Directors Association on the development of policy guidance around implementation that makes sense for our communities and programs.

Successful Implementation

Behavioral Health will have:

- ▶ Ensured transparency by sharing the data and information widely - measure number and types of stakeholders engaged
- ▶ Hold listening sessions and gather input from stakeholders - measure number of types of stakeholders engaged
- ▶ Provide written response to community concerns raised during input sessions
- ▶ Developed a clear and transparent recommendation for the Board of Supervisors based on facts, data, and input.
- ▶ Developed transition plans including seeking ways to mitigate impacts with every contractor or program that will be adversely affected by funding changes. Measure % of programs and contractors with transition plan.
- ▶ Measure amount of additional funding that is developed through partnerships, CalAIM Medi-Cal billing or other sources that adds to programs' continuity
