Other Board Matters

8. Board Comments

Supervisor Armenta announced that during the month of March, he attended the Legislative Conference and an Immigration Reform workshop with Javier Bacerra. He also attended workshops related to public transit. More recently, he attended a racial equity conference in Portland, Oregon. The conference addressed equity and how to work different groups can and should work together. Supervisor Armenta commented that we need to share the things we have in common and keep the conversations going. He has information from the conferences including PowerPoints available in his office.

Supervisor Salinas thanked Sheriff Miller, Elliott Robinson and Probation for their assistance with the Four Cities for Peace retreat in Gonzales last week. The goal was to develop strategies to reduce violence and find ways to increase activities and get youth involved.

Supervisor Parker read encouraging news in the Salinas Californian this morning regarding Sam Farr and Congress have passed a fix to the Medicare reimbursement rate which would be of assistance to Monterey County. She encouraged the County to send a letter to the President to sign this bill when it arrives. She congratulated Congressman Farr.

Supervisor Parker noted the resolution adopted today designating April 6 through 12 as National Crime Victim's week. She thanked all of the victims for their courage for coming forward to share their stories and helping others understand from a very human standpoint some of the issues that are happening in our community. The Victims Rights event is on April 10th in the Board Chamber at noon. She encouraged everyone to attend and thanked all those serving on the Community Restorative Justice Commission.
