IN AN HOUR'S TIME Carl Coelho Members on

By TRAVIS MACKIE

An hour's trip to Brazil back is a grand way to spend a sunny afternoon—as the Watsonville Women's club had an opportunity to find out Friday. Coelho, Watsonville high's faculty member in the history-social sciences department, gave his audience on a quick tour of Rio de Janeiro, Sao Paulo and other parts of Brazil via slides.

Coelho was on sabbatical last year, spending a year at the University of Sao Paulo studying the history and geography of the country. He took a leisurely voyage by freighter from New Orleans, taking a month to visit the major cities of Brazil. In addition to sightseeing in Sao Paulo, Coelho took time to point out interesting places at the university adjourned for vacation during December, January and February.

Because time was necessarily limited, the club's speaker confined his illustrated journey to the cities of Rio and Sao Paulo, a look-in at a Brazilian coffee plantation. The famous statue of the Rede overlooking Rio, a familiar sight to even those who have seen photographs of the city, was shown. And although Coelho assured his listeners that Rio is all glamour but has slums, the top panorama we first saw on slides, white buildings against a curve of blue water seemed very wonderful.

Memories of the remainder of Coelho's superb slide collection have fallen, I find, into a
