

JEANNE NAKAGAWA

Jeanne was born and raised in northern California. Attended local schools and graduated from Sierra College.

Married my Naval Aviator husband, Gordon, in 1959, and followed him throughout his 32 year Naval career. He retired from the Naval Postgraduate School in 1989 and we retired in Marina, CA.

I have been active with several organizations including: The Marina Foundation (member of the founding group), Military Officers Organization of America, the Japanese American Citizens League, the Del Monte Club of NPS and several other organizations. I have served on many boards and have been active in volunteerism. In 2020, I was nominated for the Jefferson Award.

My husband passed away in 2011. I have three children: Gregory, Kathleen and Steven and three grandchildren: Ryan, Graham and Tait.
