Resolution No.: 15-294

Resolution recognizing the Carmel Woman’s Club for their 90 years of continuous service on the Monterey Peninsula.....)
)

WHEREAS, the Carmel Woman’s Club celebrates 90 years of continuous operation serving the local community and beyond; and

WHEREAS, established in December 1925, the Carmel Woman’s Club has maintained an influential presence in the cultural and social life not only of the local area but throughout the Monterey Peninsula; and

WHEREAS, the Carmel Woman’s Club’s outreach programs have touched the lives of many individuals, given support to community organizations, and provided home front assistance to the U.S. during World War II; and

WHEREAS, over the years, efforts of the ladies, and now men, of the Carmel Woman’s Club have resulted in the beautification programs along streets and highways, employment for men out of work during the Great Depression, and emergency aid to foreign refugees in need of relief; and

WHEREAS, living up to its stated purpose “To foster a community spirit, and to promote the civic, cultural, artistic and social ideas of the community”, the Carmel Woman’s Club continues the tradition of service as is exemplified in a list of countless beneficiaries; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Monterey County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of the County and all citizens thereof, hereby congratulates the Carmel Woman’s Club for its 90-year presence and commitment to the betterment of the life of the Monterey Peninsula and wishes them continued success in all of their future endeavors.
