

Before the Historic Resources Review Board in and for the County of Monterey, State of California

Resolution No. 1201

Resolution by the Monterey County Historic Resources Review Board (HRRB) to recommend approval to the Board of Supervisors for the application from UCP East Garrison, LLC to add the Chapel at East Garrison to the County's Local Official Register of Historic Resources.

WHEREAS, this matter was heard by the Historic Resources Review Board (HRRB) of the County of Monterey on May 10, 2012, pursuant to the criteria for designation as contained in Chapter 18.25.060 of the Monterey County Code;

WHEREAS, the East Garrison Chapel (APN 031-164-122) is located at East Garrison on the former Fort Ord and is considered to be historically significant as a good representative example of a wood-frame structure associated with the nation-wide mobilization program designed to build cantonments in which to house, train and provide places for worship for the expanded World War II Army; and

WHEREAS, at the conclusion of the hearing, the matter was submitted to the HRRB for a recommendation. Having considered all the written and documentary information submitted, oral testimony, and other evidence presented before the HRRB, the HRRB rendered its decision to adopt findings and evidence to recommend approval of the application for historic designation, subject to the following findings:

Finding: The proposed designation of the East Garrison Chapel meets one or more of the review criteria set forth in Chapter 18.25.070 of the Monterey County Code specifically.

1. The resource proposed for designation is representative of a distinct historical period.
2. The resource proposed for designation is associated with events that have made a meaningful contribution to the nation, state, or community.

Evidence:

1. Application and other materials in file 1201 (East Garrison Chapel).
2. Historic Resource designation criteria as found in Chapter 18.25 of the Monterey County Code.
3. Oral testimony and HRRB discussion during the public hearing and the administrative record.

THEREFORE, it is the decision of the Monterey County Historic Resources Review Board to recommend approval to the Board of Supervisors for the designation of the East Garrison Chapel as a historic resource.
