

Cristina Sotelo, LCSW

Ms. Sotelo is a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. She has lived and worked in South Monterey County for the last 20+ years. She has worked in preschool classrooms and is currently a counselor at the Rape Crisis Center in Greenfield, CA. In addition to her experience and knowledge working with individuals who have been impacted by trauma, she understands the cultural complexities in Monterey County and is committed to working towards racial equity, diversity and social justice through systems change.