Subject

Fiscal Year 2022–23 Judicial Salary Increase Adjustment

I am forwarding the attached Exempt Pay Letter received from the California Department of Human Resources regarding an adjustment to the fiscal year 2022–23 judicial salary increases.

Seven executive branch bargaining units (2, 5, 8, 9, 10, 13, and 18) have received a general salary increase retroactive to July 1, 2022. These increases have now been included in the judicial salary calculations. The pay letter addresses an adjusted judicial salary increase from 1.80% to 2.71%, effective July 1, 2022, pursuant to provisions of Government Code section 68203, subdivision (a).

The State Controller's Office (SCO) must still confirm dates for issuance of payments. However, it is anticipated that the new salary rates will be reflected in December 2022 payroll checks issued on January 1, 2023. Also subject to SCO confirmation, a separate retroactive payment for July 2022–November 2022 could be delivered by December 31, 2022. We will advise you if these timeframes are altered by the SCO.

Please note that administrative presiding justices and presiding judges will continue to receive additional pay differentials to their compensation.
