How did you hear about the Community Restorative Justice Commission?

From District 4 Supervisor Wendy Root-Askew. She mentioned Boards & Commissions were looking to fill vacancies

Have you ever been convicted of a crime resulting in: imprisonment, probation, fine, forfeiture of bail of $100 or more? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, indicate the following: Charge: Included as Attachment Date Charged: _____
Location: _____ Action Taken: _____

Why are you interested in working as a member on the Community Restorative Justice Commission?

Because communities need healing & restoration. Punitive approaches by themselves will always fall short of achieving success in mitigating negative CJ outcomes.

Those who serve on the commission are expected to attend the monthly meeting, held on the 3rd Monday from 12:00 – 1:00 PM. You must be available to attend this meeting, as well as serve on at least one subcommittee, participate in a conference and attend Restorative Justice training.

I certify that the information on this application is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. Furthermore, my signature provides my authorization to the County of Monterey to do driver and criminal records check, as well as reference checks to determine my suitability for placement.

Mr. Amir Chapel

Amir's professional experience allows him to affect change in the criminal legal system through comprehensive program evaluation and review of quantitative and qualitative data that informs program practices and policy decisions at all levels. Working with law enforcement and community, Amir has a vast knowledge in conducting gun violence landscape analyses which look to identify individuals most likely to be a victim of or likely to engage in gun violence, so that all interested stakeholders can work to implement evidence-based gun violence reduction strategies that work to reduce gun related homicides and non-fatal shootings. The ability to map the locations and understand the factors associated with each homicide and non-fatal shooting that occurs within a jurisdiction allows for effective strategies to be implemented.
