1) PROVISION OF SERVICES AND EQUIPMENT. Company agrees to provide to Customer, and Customer agrees to obtain from Company, Service and Equipment for use by Customer's employees, or other third parties as specifically permitted by Company herein (collectively, the "Subscribers"), in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The scope of Services and Equipment, and the charges therefor, are set forth on Exhibit A which is attached hereto and made a part hereof. Customer agrees that it is responsible for all activities and usage of its Subscribers hereunder. Any new or additional services and equipment not listed on Exhibit A which may be requested by Customer and provided by Company at any time hereafter will be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and an amendment which will be executed by both Company and Customer in order for it to be binding. Provision of Services and Equipment are subject to applicable regulatory requirements.

2) TERM OF AGREEMENT. This Agreement shall be effective for a period of two (2) years, beginning with the above date (the "Initial Term"). This agreement will expire on the term expiration date and will only renew with an Amendment signed by both parties extending the term. Subject to Section 12 below, the "Term" of this Agreement will consist of the Initial Term.

3) INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK.

4) USE OF SERVICES AND EQUIPMENT BY CUSTOMER.

a) General. Company provides the Services through authority granted to it by the Federal Communications Commission (the "FCC"). The use and provision of the Services and Equipment are subject to the rules and regulations of the FCC and applicable federal, state and local regulatory authorities in effect during the term hereof, and Customer agrees to comply with all of such laws and with such reasonable conditions as Company may require from time to time, including but not limited to compliance with Spok, Inc.'s Acceptable Use Policy, attached hereto as Exhibit C and its Privacy Policy attached hereto as Exhibit D. Customer may not use, nor permit any of its Subscribers to use, the Services and/or Equipment for promotional purposes or for resale. Neither Customer nor any Subscriber may transfer any of the Services or Equipment without the prior written approval of Company. Customer and its Subscribers may only use the Services and Equipment for personal and lawful purposes and for the purposes intended. Company will designate, coordinate and assign for Customer and the Subscribers the capcodes, personal identification numbers, email addresses and telephone numbers (collectively, the "Numbers") for all Equipment using Services provided by Company. Neither Customer nor the Subscribers shall obtain any ownership interest in, or exclusive right to use, such Numbers. Company reserves the right to assign, designate, reassign or change Numbers as reasonably necessary in the conduct of its business. Customer will not permit any Number to be used by more than one unit of Equipment.

b) Excessive Use of Network. (i) Subject to Company's Acceptable Use Policy, and other general terms and conditions contained in this Agreement or incorporated herein and available at www.spok.com, all uses of Company's networks, including without limitation under Service plans that allow for an unlimited number of messages or characters ("Unlimited Use Plans") are subject to all reasonable restrictions on use that Company may impose, at its sole discretion and without prior notice, for protection of the networks and other Company customers. Unless otherwise expressly agreed by Company in writing, Services, including those under Unlimited Use Plans cannot be used for: (1) uploading, downloading or streaming of movies, music or games, (2) with server devices or with hosted computer applications, including, but not limited to, automatic data feeds, automated machine-to-machine connections, or peer-to-peer (P2P) file sharing, or (3) as a substitute or backup for dedicated data connections.

(ii) Company reserves the right to limit throughput or amount of data transferred, and deny or terminate service, without notice, to Customer if the Company believes Customer is using any Usage Plan in any manner prohibited herein or that adversely impacts Company's network or service levels. Company reserves the right to protect its network from harm, which may impact legitimate data flows, by disconnecting customers or limiting their access to the network in the event of any violations of these provisions. Company also reserves the right to treat excessive use of the Service as a material breach of this Agreement and to permanently terminate service to Customer for such excessive use. Excessive use is defined as:

Input Protocol	Maximum Messages Allowed per Time Frame	Time Frame (in Seconds)	Maximum Messages Per Day
SMTP	15	300	1000
WCTP	10	300	1000
HTTP	10	300	250
TAP	30	300	3000

5) PURCHASE OF EQUIPMENT. If Customer purchases any Equipment from Company hereunder, the following terms and conditions shall apply:

a) Selection and Availability of Equipment. Customer shall be responsible for the selection of models of Equipment in accordance with its desired use and functionality and shall be responsible for payment with respect to all Equipment ordered by any of its Subscribers. Company may provide new or refurbished Equipment to Customer. The models of Equipment listed on Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, are subject to availability from the manufacturer, and may be discontinued or replaced by other models at any time.

b) Title to the Equipment; Risk of Loss. Upon receipt of payment in full for the Equipment, title to such Equipment shall pass to Customer free and clear of any lien or encumbrances arising out of Company's ownership thereof. Customer assumes full responsibility for the risk of loss or damage upon delivery of the Equipment to Customer, and no loss, theft or damage to the Equipment thereafter shall relieve Customer of its obligations to pay any fees and charges due to Company with respect to the purchase of such Equipment. Company shall retain a purchase money security interest in Equipment in any amount of the unpaid balance of the purchase price until such Equipment has been paid in full. To the extent that local law requires Customer to sign any such financing statement, Customer will do so upon Company's request and return the same to Spök, Inc. within two (2) business days of Customer's receipt of the financing statement(s).

c) Warranty and Repair.

(i) Items of Equipment shall be deemed to have been delivered to Customer in good working order unless Customer returns the same to Company for exchange or repair within thirty (30) days after delivery.

(ii) In the event Customer elects to purchase maintenance protection ("Maintenance"), Company shall maintain such Customer owned Equipment. Company shall, at its discretion, repair or replace (with a substantially similar unit) such Equipment at no additional cost to Customer that Company determines to be defective. The Maintenance charges, including the applicable deductibles, if any, are set forth on Exhibit A. However, in the event that Equipment covered by Maintenance is damaged while in Customer's possession, or is returned to Company with parts missing, Company shall charge Customer for such repair or replacement of such Equipment (including, without limitation, for all replacement parts, repair charges and handling fees in effect at such time). Devices that have been contaminated with bio-hazardous waste or devices that have been submerged in any liquid must not be shipped or returned to Spok. Such devices are considered damaged beyond repair and should be disposed of using customer's appropriate occupational health and safety protocols.

(iii) In the event Customer opts not to purchase Maintenance, or such Maintenance is not available to Customer, Company shall, at its discretion, repair or replace Customer owned Equipment at the fees and expenses in effect at the time of such repair or replacement. Company shall have the right to charge Customer for all replacement parts and handling and administrative charges in effect at such time. Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to pass through manufacturers' warranties, if any, to Customer, to the extent permitted by such manufacturer.

d) Encryption. Company reserves the right to sell Equipment that has been manufactured with passwords and encryption for security purposes. Such encryption or passwords may be used to disable the Equipment in the event of misuse of Services or the refrequencing of the Equipment on the messaging network of another carrier.

6) LEASE OF EQUIPMENT. If Customer leases any Equipment from Company hereunder, the following terms and conditions shall apply:

a) Selection and Availability of Equipment. Customer shall be responsible for the selection of models of Equipment in accordance with its desired use and functionality and shall be responsible for payment with respect to all Equipment ordered by any of its Subscribers. Company may provide new or refurbished Equipment to Customer. The models of Equipment listed on Exhibit A, as the same may be amended from time to time, are subject to availability from the manufacturer, and may be discontinued or replaced by other models at any time.

b) Title to the Equipment; Risk of Loss. Title to all Equipment leased by Company to Customer shall remain in Company. Promptly (not to exceed ten (10) days) upon (i) the expiration or termination of this Agreement, or (ii) such time as the Equipment is no longer in use by Customer, Customer shall return (at its sole cost and expense) all leased Equipment (or items of Equipment no longer in use, as the case may be) to Company in accordance with Company's shipping instructions. Customer shall be responsible for the safekeeping of all such Equipment and shall return same to Company in substantially the same condition as it was received by Customer, reasonable wear and tear excepted. COMPANY WILL CONTINUE TO CHARGE CUSTOMER THE MONTHLY LEASE AND SERVICES CHARGES FOR EACH ITEM OF EQUIPMENT UNTIL IT IS RETURNED TO COMPANY IN GOOD CONDITION OR CUSTOMER HAS PAID THE FULL REPLACEMENT COST THEREFORE. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement, in the event Customer has not returned Equipment by the sixtieth (60th) day thereafter, Customer shall pay Company the full replacement cost of such Equipment. Subject to the remainder of this Section 6(b), in the event Customer returns Equipment that is damaged or has missing parts, Company shall charge Customer for all replacement parts and repairs charges in effect at such time. Devices that have been contaminated with bio-hazardous waste or devices that have been submerged in any liquid must not be shipped or returned to Company. Such devices are considered damaged beyond repair and should be disposed of using customer's appropriate occupational health and safety protocols. Customer shall be responsible for the replacement cost set forth on Exhibit A for any lost or stolen Equipment, or Equipment which is damaged beyond repair, unless Customer has purchased the Loss Protection Plan described on Exhibit A. Company shall invoice Customer for Services and the monthly lease charges with respect to each unit of Equipment until Customer either: (i) provides Company with written notice of any lost or stolen Equipment, or Equipment which is damaged beyond repair, and makes a claim under the Loss Protection Plan, if Customer has elected to participate in such plan, or (ii) pays Company the replacement cost set forth on Exhibit A.

c) Warranty and Repair. Customer may return for exchange any item of leased Equipment that is defective at any time during the term of this Agreement, and Company, at its option, shall repair such Equipment or replace it with substantially similar Equipment. Subject to Section 6(b) above pertaining to Equipment that has been damaged beyond repair, in the event such leased Equipment is damaged while in Customer's possession, or is returned to Company with parts missing, Company shall charge Customer for such repair or replacement of such Equipment (including, without limitation, for all replacement parts, repair charges and handling fees in effect at such time).

d) Encryption. Company reserves the right to lease Equipment that has been manufactured with passwords and encryption for security purposes. Such encryption or passwords may be used to disable the Equipment in the event of misuse of Services, Customer breach of this Agreement, or the refrequencing of the Equipment on the messaging network of another carrier.

7) STANDARD OF PERFORMANCE.

a) Company shall provide Services consistent with the normal and reasonable standards of the wireless messaging industry. Company shall promptly investigate any complaints made by Customer and shall take such steps as are commercially reasonable and necessary to correct any deficiency in the Service. Adjustments for Service interruptions shall be made in accordance with Section 10(e) hereof.

b) Company warrants that Company's agents, employees, and subcontractors performing services under this Agreement are specially trained, experienced, competent, and appropriately licensed to perform the work and deliver the services required under this Agreement and are not employees of Customer, or immediate family of an employee of Customer.

8) WARRANTY DISCLAIMER.

a) THE LIMITED WARRANTIES AND REMEDIES CONTAINED HEREIN ARE THE EXCLUSIVE WARRANTIES AND REMEDIES OFFERED BY COMPANY. COMPANY MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, CONCERNING THE SERVICE, THE EQUIPMENT OR ITS FACILITIES, NETWORK OR SYSTEM, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE, WHICH COMPANY SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS. If any court finds any such warranty to exist, Company's liability for any imputed breach thereof shall not exceed the proportionate charges to Customer during the month in which such imputed breach occurs.

b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, telecommunications services, including the Services, may be adversely affected by various conditions, including but not limited to electrical interference, terrain, weather, Acts of God or governmental authority (including limitations on the availability of telephone numbers or spectrum), equipment failure, user error and the failure of any satellite or other connecting telecommunications facilities, or circumstances beyond Company's control (each a "Force Majeure Event"). Periodic service interruptions may be necessary to perform maintenance on the networks and facilities. Company, therefore cannot and does not guarantee the availability of the Services at all times and under all circumstances, nor that all messages will be received in a timely manner. Wireless messaging services are not secure methods of transmission, and Company cannot and does not guarantee against improper actions of third parties that interfere with the privacy of messages or the integrity of the Services. Services related to databases and information content may contain inaccuracies from time to time that occur at the source or in the transmission process (including but not limited to errors in stock quotations, sports results and news reports), and Company cannot and does not guarantee the accuracy or availability of such Services. Company's prices for the Services do not include insurance for these inherent risks.

c) NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS REGARDING TRANSMISSION OF WIRELESS EMERGENCY ALERTS (Commercial Mobile Alert Service). Spok, Inc. presently does not transmit wireless emergency alerts. Notice required by FCC Rule 47 C.F.R. § 10.240 (Commercial Mobile Alert Service).

9) LIMITATION ON LIABILITY.

CUSTOMER agrees that neither the COMPANY nor its Personnel will be liable to CUSTOMER for any claims, liabilities, or expenses relating to the Services, the Materials or the Agreement including without limitation, any loss or damage arising from any delay, loss or interruption of the service, or from any missed or incomplete page, for an amount not to exceed the maximum insurance amounts required as stated in this agreement except to the extent finally judicially determined to have results from the COMPANY's bad faith or intentional misconduct.

10) BILLING, PAYMENT AND BILLING DISPUTES.

a) Prices. Customer shall pay Company for Services and Equipment on behalf of itself and all of its Subscribers in accordance with the applicable rates set forth on Exhibit A. Upon the expiration of the Initial Term and with the enforcement of an Amendment to extend the Agreement term, new pricing may be negotiated for that new term which may result in increased fees.

b) Taxes; Other Pass-Through Charges. Unless otherwise specifically set forth therein, the rates set forth on Exhibit A do not include: (i) taxes or similar charges imposed by any law, ordinance, regulation, order or act of any governmental agency. CA sales tax shall be added to the cost of any goods/parts invoiced to NMC.

c) Payment Terms. Fees and charges for recurring Services, Equipment leasing and Equipment installment purchases will be invoiced to Customer monthly in advance (along with any taxes, Universal Service Fund and other regulatory charges and administrative charges applicable to or assessed against such Services and Equipment, and sums carried forward). Overcalls and other non-recurring fees, if any, for the month shall appear on the subsequent month's invoice. All Equipment purchases (other than installment purchases) will be invoiced upon delivery. Customer shall certify the invoice and shall make payment within thirty (30) days after the certified invoice has been received by the Monterey County Auditor-Controller. COMPANY MAY TEMPORARILY SUSPEND OR PERMANENTLY TERMINATE THE SERVICES TO CUSTOMER FOR NON-PAYMENT AFTER PROVIDING CUSTOMER WITH WRITTEN NOTICE AND SIXTY DAYS (60) TO RECTIFY PAYMENT ISSUE.

d) Disputed Invoices. If Customer wishes to contest an Company invoice, Customer will give written notice to Company within ninety (90) days after the date of each such invoice, setting forth the amount in dispute and the reasons therefore (a "Dispute Notice"); provided, however, that Customer may not withhold any undisputed amounts from payment during such dispute. If the dispute is resolved in Customer's favor, a credit in the amount of any overcharge will be made to Customer's account. All invoices for which a Dispute Notice is not delivered to Company within the time period set forth in this Section 10(d) shall be deemed conclusively accepted and all of Customer's claims deemed waived.

e) Credit For Service Interruption. In the event that Service is interrupted, subject to Sections 8 and 9, Customer's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the pro rata adjustment to the fixed monthly charges for Service (an "Adjustment"); provided that if an interruption does not impact all of Customer's Equipment, an Adjustment under this Section shall only be assessed against the pro rata monthly charge applicable to the affected Equipment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, an Adjustment shall only be made (i) for interruptions of more than thirty-six (36) consecutive hours in duration and (ii) from the time Company receives notice from Customer of such interruption until the termination of such interruption. Such notice may be given by telephone and confirmed by facsimile transmission. Company shall not be obligated to make an Adjustment in the event that the interruption is caused by (i) Customer, Subscriber or any person using Customer's Equipment, including, among other things, (a) failure to comply with the Equipment's operating instructions or (b) any breach hereunder, (ii) any Force Majeure Event, (iii) scheduled outages or similar activities reasonably necessary or appropriate for the proper or improved operations of the Company, (iv) the Equipment, or (v) signal or coverage limitations.

11) COMPANY'S OPERATING PROCEDURES. Service shall be provided in compliance with the Operating Procedures attached hereto as Exhibit B, which are attached hereto and incorporated herein. Customer acknowledges that it has read and agrees to comply with the Operating Procedures.

12) EVENTS OF DEFAULT; TERMINATION.

a) During the term of this Agreement, Customer may terminate the Agreement for any reason by giving written notice of termination to the Company at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of termination. Such notice shall set forth the effective date of termination. In the event of such termination, the amount payable under this Agreement shall be reduced in proportion to the services provided prior to the date of termination.

b) Customer may cancel and terminate this Agreement for good cause effective immediately upon written notice to Company. "Good cause" includes the failure of Company to perform the required services at the time and in the manner provided under this Agreement. If Customer terminates this Agreement for good cause, Customer may be relieved of the payment of any consideration to Company, and Customer may proceed with the work in any manner, which Customer deems proper. The cost to Customer shall be deducted from any sum due the Company under this Agreement.

c) Customer's payments to Company under this Agreement are funded by local, state and federal governments. If funds from local, state and federal sources are not obtained and continued at a level sufficient to allow for Customer's purchase of the indicated quantity of services, then Customer may give written notice of this fact to Company, and the obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall terminate immediately, or on such date thereafter, as the County may specify in its notice, unless in the meanwhile the parties enter into a written amendment modifying this Agreement.

d) Termination after the Initial Term. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time after the Initial Term, for any reason or no reason, by notice given in accordance with Section 17(a) hereof, which notice must be received by the other no less than thirty (30) days prior to date on which such termination is to become effective. Customer will pay replacement fee for all equipment not returned within ninety days of the cancellation.

e) Partial Termination. Customer may terminate service on one or more, but less than all, units under Customer's account upon thirty days' prior written notice, subject to the terms of Section 3 hereof. If Customer has ten (10) or more wireless devices in service and at any time terminates service on twenty (20) percent of the units in service, the Customer shall pay Company the monthly fee for each terminated device multiplied times the number of months remaining in the Term of this Agreement.

f) Events of Default of Customer. Any of the events described below will be considered an event of default of Customer:

(i) Nonpayment. Failure by Customer to pay all amounts due Company under this Agreement when due.

(ii) Misuse of Services. Customer or any Subscriber has used the Services in violation of Section 4 above.

(iii) Other Breaches. Customer or any Subscriber has breached any material term or condition of this Agreement (other than as set forth in Sections 12(c)(i) and (ii) above) and such breach is not curable or if curable, has not been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach (specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach) from Company.

g) Events of Default of Company. Company will be in default of this Agreement if it has breached any material term or condition of this Agreement and such breach is not curable or if curable, has not been cured within forty-five (45) days after written notice of such breach (specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such breach) from Customer. Company will not be considered to be in default if it is unable to provide the Services or Equipment by reason of a Force Majeure Event or under any other circumstance identified in Section 8.

13) Indemnification BY COMPANY

COMPANY shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the CUSTOMER, its officers, agents and employees from any claim, liability, loss, injury or damage rising out of, or in connection with, performance of this Agreement by COMPANY and/or its agents, members, employees or sub-contractors, excepting only loss, injury or damage caused by the negligence or willful misconduct of personnel employed by the CUSTOMER. It is the intent of the Parties to this Agreement to provide the broadest possible indemnification for the CUSTOMER. Discussions will continue as the parties are available for no less than 30 days and longer if the parties agree to extend the time.

c) If the dispute cannot be resolved by discussion, the parties agree to submit it to a nationally known alternative dispute resolution organization with offices in Washington D.C. The first choice will be JAMS Endispute, but if that organization is unavailable for some reason the party raising the issue may select any other qualifying agency. The matter will first be submitted to nonbinding mediation in accordance with the rules of that organization, and mediation will be pursued by both parties in good faith until the mediator declares that the dispute cannot be resolved by that means. Within 7 days of the mediator's determination that the dispute cannot be resolved by mediation, either party may request that the same organization conduct an arbitration of the dispute, in accordance with its rules. If such a request is made, the parties will pursue arbitration according to the organization's rules, with the proviso that there will be only one arbitrator selected. The arbitrator's decision will be enforceable in any court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable law.

d) If the parties for some reason are permitted or required to take a dispute to court, they shall proceed only in a US court located within the County of Monterey.

a) Customer Information. COMPANY and its officers, employees, agents and subcontractors shall comply with any and all federal, state, and local laws, which provide for the confidentiality of records and other information. COMPANY shall not disclose any confidential records or other confidential information received from CUSTOMER or prepared in connection with the performance of this Agreement, unless CUSTOMER specifically permits COMPANY to disclose such records or information. COMPANY shall promptly transmit to CUSTOMER any and all requests for disclosure of any such confidential records or information. COMPANY shall not use any confidential information gained by COMPANY in the performance of this Agreement except for the sole purpose of carrying out COMPANY's obligations under this Agreement.

"Customer Proprietary Network Information" or "CPNI" is information that relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, and location of, and amount Customer uses, the telecommunications service to which Customer subscribes, and that is made available to Company by Customer solely by virtue of the carrier-customer relationship. It does not include information such as name, telephone, number, address or advertising classification; that is, the kind of information that appears in a telephone book. Company can use CPNI without Customer's consent to do any of the following:

- (i) provide Customer with the services it ordered and bill Customer for them;
- (ii) protect Company's rights or property, or to protect our other users and other carriers from fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful use of, or subscription to, Company's services;
- (iii) provide Customer with paging units or other equipment to be used in providing services to Customer, and provide maintenance and repair services to that equipment;
- (iv) comply with law or legal process (such as a warrant or subpoena).

Company does not otherwise access or use CPNI, or share CPNI with third parties. Other than for the foregoing purposes, under the rules of the FCC, Customer has rights to restrict the use of, disclosure of, and access to its CPNI. Consequently, if in the future Company wishes to use or access Customer's CPNI for purposes other than those described in this Section 20(b), or disclose it to third parties, it will give Customer written or electronic (i.e., e-mail) notice of the type of use or disclosure it wishes to make of CPNI, explaining Customer's rights to "opt in" or "opt out" of such use or disclosure. BY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT, CUSTOMER AGREES TO COMPANY PROVIDING CUSTOMER WITH NOTICE REGARDING CPNI VIA E-MAIL.

c) The terms and conditions of Section 23(a) shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement for a period of two (2) years.

24) SIGNATURE AUTHORITY. The individuals signing below on behalf of the contracting parties respectively warrant that they are properly and duly authorized to so sign and obligate their respective employers/principals. Upon execution of this Agreement, each party shall have the right to rely on such warranty and may rely on the apparent authority in asserting its rights hereunder and its fulfillment of its obligations hereunder.

25) ENTIRE AGREEMENT. This Agreement, along with the Exhibits and Attachments hereto, represents the entire agreement with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior discussions and agreements between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may be modified only by a written amendment duly signed by persons authorized to sign agreements on behalf of both parties, and shall not be supplemented or modified by any course of dealing or trade usage, other than as specified herein. Variance from or addition to the terms and conditions of this Agreement by any purchase order, or other written notification, shall be of no effect.

26) SEVERABILITY; AMENDMENT. If any provision of this Agreement is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible so as to effect the intent of the parties, and the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining provisions will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby. In the event of a change in applicable law, including without limitation, the rules, regulations or policies of the FCC, that impacts the provision of the Services or the agreed-upon conduct of the parties, this Agreement shall be amended to conform to the requirements of such applicable law. If a change in applicable law substantially deprives a party of its rights or benefits under this Agreement, or makes such party's performance materially more difficult or costly, then such party may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other.

27) SURVIVAL.

a) Any obligations and duties that by their nature are intended to extend beyond the expiration or earlier termination of this Agreement (including, by way of example and not limitation, the provisions regarding indemnification, limitation of liability and choice of law) shall survive any such expiration or termination and remain in effect as necessary or appropriate to fulfill such obligations or duties in accordance with such terms.

b) In the event this Agreement is not renewed by notification from the Customer for additional terms at the expiration of the current Term and Company continues to provide service to Customer, all Terms and Conditions as stated in this Agreement will remain in full force until terminated by either Party subject to Section 12 of this Agreement.

28) WAIVER. No delay or failure by either party in exercising any right under this Agreement, and no partial or single exercise of that right, will constitute a waiver of that right or any other right. Failure by either party to enforce any right under this Agreement will not be deemed a waiver of future enforcement of that or any other right.

29) NO THIRD PARTY BENEFICIARIES. This Agreement shall inure solely to the benefit of Company and Customer. There are no third party beneficiaries to this Agreement or the Services and Equipment provided hereunder, including but not limited to any Subscriber or family member of such Subscriber.

30) INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. All intellectual property (copyrights, patents, trade secrets, confidential and proprietary information, license rights and the like) included in any of the Services or Equipment provided by Company under this Agreement ("Intellectual Property") shall remain the sole and exclusive property of Company and its licensors and shall be subject to the standard end-user license agreements of Company and/or its licensors for such Intellectual Property. To the extent that no separate end-user license agreement is required, Spök, Inc. hereby grants to Customer and its Subscribers a non-exclusive, royalty-free license (or sublicense, as the case may be), for the Term hereof and in the service area in which Customer subscribes to the Service, to use, perform, and display the Intellectual Property contained in the Service and Equipment, solely for the purposes of receiving and using such Service and Equipment. Any such license rights shall automatically terminate immediately upon the termination or expiration of this Agreement. In no event shall Customer (a) rent, lease, or loan the Intellectual Property; (b) electronically transmit the Intellectual Property over a network except as necessary for Customer's licensed use of the Intellectual Property; (c) use run-time versions of third-party products embedded in the Intellectual Property, if any, for any use other than the intended use of the Intellectual Property; (d) modify, disassemble, decompile, or reverse engineer the Intellectual Property; (e) transfer possession of any copy of the Intellectual Property to another party, except as expressly permitted herein; (f) make any copies of the Intellectual Property, except for one (1) copy for archival purposes, subject to the terms of an applicable end-user license agreement; or (g) use the Intellectual Property in any way not expressly provided for in this Agreement. There are no implied licenses and Customer agrees not to exceed the scope of the written licenses granted.

b) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be deemed to confer upon Customer any right to use in advertising, publicity, marketing activities or otherwise any name, trademark, service mark or other designation of Company or its affiliates, including any contraction, abbreviation or simulation of any of the foregoing, without the prior written consent of Company.

31) CONSTRUCTION. This Agreement is to be construed fairly in accordance with its terms. In no event shall this Agreement be interpreted strictly against either party by reason of any rule of construction holding that contractual provisions are to be construed against the party drafting the same. Section headings in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, and shall not affect the interpretation of any provision hereof. Unless context clearly requires otherwise, the singular of any term shall include the plural and vice versa, and terms of either gender shall include the other or the neuter.

32) REMEDIES CUMULATIVE. All remedies under this Agreement, at law or in equity, or otherwise afforded to Company, shall be cumulative and not alternative.

33) COUNTERPARTS. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and both of which shall be deemed one and the same agreement.

34) This vendor/contractor/subcontractor shall abide by the requirements of 41 CFR §§ 60-1.4(a), 60-300.5(a) and 60-741.5(a). These regulations prohibit discrimination against qualified individuals based on their status as protected veterans or individuals with disabilities, and prohibit discrimination against all individuals based on their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Moreover, these regulations require that covered prime contractors and subcontractors take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment individuals without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, protected veteran status or disability.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties has caused this Agreement to be executed by a person with full power and authority to bind such party on the day and year first written above.

Spok, Inc. and its operating subsidiaries ("Spok") have published this Acceptable Use Policy ("Policy") in an effort to provide high quality, reliable service; protect the privacy and security of its customers, systems, and networks; encourage responsible use of Spok's resources; and comply with applicable laws.

This Policy applies to all Spok customers, users of software, communication systems and paging services ("Services") offered by Spok, and those who access Spok's communication networks ("Networks"), hereinafter referred to as "you." Services include but are not limited to one-way and two-way paging, text messaging, mobile communications, mass notification, public safety communications and software services. This Policy governs when and under what circumstances Spok may suspend or terminate your use of the Services and access to Spok's Networks. By using our Services or accessing our Networks, you consent to the acceptable use practices described in this Policy, as modified from time to time by us.

This Policy supplements, but does not supersede, the contract that customers have with Spok or one of its operating subsidiaries; if such a contract restricts a use of the Networks that is not addressed in this Policy, the contract will govern with respect to such use. Spok users and subscribers may use the Services only in a manner consistent with all applicable local, state and federal laws and regulations, and in accordance with their customer contract and the acceptable use practices set forth below.

WARRANTY DISCLAIMER

Some services are not secure methods of communication, and Company cannot and does not guarantee against improper actions of third parties that interfere with the privacy of messages or the integrity of the Services.

ACCESS TO TRANSACTIONAL INFORMATION AND CONTENT

Spok may access, use, and disclose transaction information about your use of our Services, and any content transmitted to or by you via the Services or through the Services, to the extent permitted by law, in order to comply with the law (e.g., if necessary to respond to civil or criminal subpoenas); to enforce or apply our customer agreements; to initiate, render, bill and collect for our Services; to protect our rights or property; or to protect users of our Services from fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful use of, or subscription to, our Services. For certain health care industry customers of Spok, Spok may access, use or disclose protected health information subject to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA"). In such instances, Spok complies with applicable privacy and security obligations as a "business associate" under HIPAA.

If your customer agreement with Spok provides that Spok may disclose to you records or other information, such as historical message content, log files, database records, etc., or if Spok otherwise discloses such information to you upon your request and consent, you agree to indemnify and hold Spok harmless from any claim, action, demand, loss, or damage (including attorneys' fees) made or incurred by any third party arising out of or relating to such disclosure. To the extent that you, as a customer of Spok, request such transactional information and content from Spok, you warrant to Spok that you have notified your employees or other users of the Service for whom you have subscribed that their information may be monitored, recorded, transcribed, and disclosed without their prior knowledge or consent, and that these users understand that they will not have any legal rights or remedies against Spok with respect to such actions taken at your request.

Indirect or attempted violations of this policy or any related policy, guideline, or agreement. Actual or attempted violations by a third party on your behalf shall be considered violations of this policy by you.

The failure of Spok to enforce this Policy, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any time. If any portion of this Policy is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible, and the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect.

CHANGES TO THIS POLICY

Spok reserves the right to make changes to this Policy at any time if our practices change, as technology changes, or as we add new Services or change existing ones. You should refer back to this page periodically for the latest information.
