The local child support agency shall be separate and independent from any other county department and shall be responsible for promptly and effectively establishing, modifying, and enforcing child support obligations, including medical support, enforcing spousal support orders established by a court of competent jurisdiction, and determining paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock.” Cal. Fam. Code §17400: “Each county shall maintain a local child support agency, as specified in Section 17304, that shall have the responsibility for promptly and effectively establishing, modifying and enforcing child support obligations, including medical support, spousal support orders... and determining paternity in the case of a child born out of wedlock.” Cal. Wel. & Inst. Code §11477: This section mandates that certain applicants for aid assign their right to child support to the County, and agree to cooperate with local agencies on the establishment of paternity. The mandates are all directed at the applicant, and there are no specific mandates for the County, but they can be implied from the applicant mandates (e.g. if they must assign to the County, presumably the County must accept that assignment; if they must cooperate with the County in determining paternity, presumably the County will be determining paternity). But again, this specific citation contains no mandates for the County. | Approved |
