

to low-income county residents. Parenting Education supports at-risk families experiencing conflict or impacted by domestic violence and child abuse. Domestic Violence and Anger Management (DV/AM) classes focus on the offender, include a 52-week and a 12-week certified course for perpetrators of domestic violence. The supervised Visitation/Anger Management Program includes a home-like setting for non-custodial parents and children to interact. Drug and alcohol intervention services for youth are provided and include clients impacted by community violence. Emergency shelter and food services are provided through the Safe Place, Salinas Valley Street Outreach Program (SVSOP) and Safe Passage programs. These programs provide emergency shelter, street outreach, meals and snack bags, and informal street counseling. Safe Passage provides 18 to 24 month stays in a group housing facility for those 18-24 years of age.
