SUMMARY/DISCUSSION:

The business needs of the Fleet Services division operations have changed over a period of time; however the positions within the division have not changed to meet the changing business needs. Under administrative direction, the purpose of the proposed Fleet Service Writer position is to diagnose mechanical problems, write repair orders and schedule service work within the Fleet Services division. The position will be responsible for monitoring the agency's fleet maintenance contract in activities of service, repair and disposal. The Fleet Service Writer will be responsible for reviewing all work performed to ensure that assigned work is being appropriately performed and that the repair order has been completed properly. Additionally, the Fleet Service Writer will monitor the job status of repairs and report to customers any additional repairs required and changes in time commitments, and will advise customers as to the care of their vehicles and the value of maintaining their vehicles in accordance with manufacturer's specifications and agency policies.

This reallocation of positions will be accomplished without increasing the number of permanent staff positions. The reallocation will be implemented through the attrition of a current vacant position. The approval of the recommendations will support Fleet Services Division goals of being a more responsive organization with the ability to adapt to the changing conditions, pressures, and needs of the County Departments and other agencies it supports.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

The County Administrative Office and Human Resources Department have reviewed and concur with this recommendation.

FINANCING:

There is no impact on the General Fund as a result of this action. This proposed reallocation will be accomplished without increasing permanent staff positions and will be managed through the reallocation of a current vacant position. The proposed salary range for the Fleet Service Writer classification is 10% lower than the Supervising Mechanic classification. There are sufficient appropriations in the FY 2013-14 Adopted Budget for Fleet Unit 8185 Appropriation Unit RMA 007.
