

house up to sixty Monterey County inmates per month in their jail system on an ongoing basis.

The Alameda County Sheriff will provide custody and care for Monterey County inmates pursuant to Minimum Standards for Local Detention Facilities as set forth in California Code of Regulations Titles 15 and 24, and in accordance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws. The Alameda Sheriff will provide inmates with the same full range of medical care available inside the facility as is provided to Alameda County inmates. All non-routine and outside medical services will be paid for by Monterey County. Alameda County agrees to only release inmates to a representative of Monterey County or federal law enforcement designee with a valid removal order. Once an inmate is set to be released from custody, the inmate will be returned to Monterey County. Monterey County will retain responsibility for the transportation of inmates to and from Alameda County.

The costs for housing the inmates are graduated based upon the number of inmates sent from our county with the lowest rate being $85.00 per inmate per day based upon a minimum of 46 inmates. On April 25, 2013, the Community Corrections Partnership (CCP) approved the FY 2013-14 budget for the recommended use of AB 109 funds. This CCP budget includes $2.5 million to fund the provision of additional jail beds to accommodate the increased number of inmates due to realignment. It is the Sheriff's Office recommendation to use these funds to cover the costs associated with housing inmates in Alameda County under this agreement. The housing of Monterey County inmates in Alameda County Jail will continue as long as the need exists and AB 109 funds are available.

Senate Bill 1021 signed by the Governor on June 27, 2012, and effective July 1, 2012, allows the Board of Supervisors of a county where adequate corrections facilities are not available to enter into an agreement with the Board of Supervisors of one or more nearby counties (do not have to be contiguous) whose county adult detention facilities are adequate and are readily accessible for jail bed space.

The Sheriff's Office will continue to work with its partners to explore other options for addressing overcrowding in the County's adult detention facility.

OTHER AGENCY INVOLVEMENT:

The County Administrative Office, Auditor-Controller, Contract/Purchasing, Risk Management and County Counsel have been consulted in the preparation of this report.

FINANCING:

The costs of the agreement will be fully reimbursed by AB 109 funds approved by the CCP for FY 2012-13 and FY 2013-14.
