- b. This option does not present operational challenges to the Treasurer-Tax Collector's office, as the proposed effective date coincides with the start of the fiscal year and aligns with established quarterly reporting due dates.

Additionally, the Board is concurrently considering potential payment options, which may include a waiver and/or stay of penalties and interest accrued on delinquent cannabis taxes. Any such action would, under existing law, require an Ordinance and two readings, delaying such a plan. Consequently, the draft Ordinance would amend Chapter 7.100.100 to authorize the Board to take any such action, should it decide to do so, either now or in the future, by Resolution. This amendment does not commit the Board to take any particular action; it merely gives the Board a faster tool to respond to market conditions as necessary, both in this case and going forward.

The Ordinance was introduced for its first reading on July 12, 2022 and is currently before the Board of Supervisors for final adoption. Redlined and clean versions of the Ordinance are attached to this report as Attachments A and B, respectively.
