

supplant, any adult education course opportunities offered at that facility. MCJ and HCCD desire and agree to establish college courses by HCCD to be offered to inmates of MCJ. HCCD will be responsible for providing all instructors and incurring all costs for said instructors, instructor materials, and student assessment testing. HCCD will waive the student enrollment fees for all participating MCJ inmates. MCJ is responsible for the cost of inmate books which will be paid by the Inmate Welfare Fund (IWF). Additionally, these books will be recycled and shared with inmate students to further reduce costs to the IWF.

Senate Bill No. 1391, approved by the Governor of the State of California and filed with the Secretary of State on September 27, 2014, allows California Community Colleges (CCCs) to receive full funding for college credit-course instruction offered in correctional institutions, and seeks to expand the offering of such courses, to inmates at the MCJ. This legislation amends Education Code Section 84810.5, which waives open course provisions in statute or regulations to allow a community college district to provide classes to inmates at MCJ and, is in compliance with Penal Code Sections 2053 - 2054, to provide rehabilitative education services to California inmates.

This agreement shall become effective upon the execution by all parties and shall continue in effect unless terminated by one of the parties by at least 60 days written notice to the other party.
