Nancy Utterback bio

Nancy Utterback is a life-long resident of South Monterey County and is currently a resident of King City. She was employed as an EMT and paramedic in Monterey County from 1983 to 2017. She has worked for both ground and air ambulance providers. Nancy has used her knowledge and skills as a volunteer providing first aid coverage at Pop Warner Football games.

Nancy has many years of experience teaching emergency medical care at multiple levels. She is currently an instructor with Salinas Union High School District teaching an Emergency Medical Responder course. She has taught advanced life support and CPR courses through Medics For Life, an approved EMS continuing education provider. Many EMTs have benefited from Nancy's knowledge and experience as she taught initial EMT courses as a part-time instructor at Hartnell College from 2006-2019.

Nancy has previously served on the EMCC representing the field paramedics. In her time on the EMCC and as an EMS provider, Nancy has been a staunch advocate for the EMS needs of the South County.
